

JAIL PRO
POLICE LEGAL SCIENCES

PLS Jail Pro Instructors

Primary Author

Patrick Logan, JD

Attorney Patrick Logan has been the Director of Iowa Legal Update and Jail Pro at Police Legal Sciences, Inc. (PLS) since 2022. Before joining PLS, Mr. Logan served as an Assistant Attorney General at the Missouri Attorney General's Office. He managed the Habeas Corpus Unit, which responds to collateral challenges to criminal convictions filed in state and federal court. The Habeas Unit also represents the State and the Department of Corrections in other original writ and declaratory judgment actions. While an Assistant Attorney General, Mr. Logan litigated cases in both state and federal trial-level courts. He also advocated in state and federal appellate courts, including the United States Court of Appeals for the Eighth Circuit and the United States Supreme Court, and he argued multiple cases of first impression in the Supreme Court of Missouri. In 2017, Mr. Logan was awarded the Missouri Attorney General's "Best Brief" award. Before joining the Missouri Attorney General's Office, Mr. Logan was an Assistant Prosecuting Attorney in Audrain County, Missouri.

Mr. Logan is admitted to practice law in Iowa, Missouri, and New Jersey state courts. He is also admitted in the United States District Court for the Western District of Missouri, the District of New Jersey, the United States Court of Appeals for the Eighth Circuit, and the United States Supreme Court. He graduated from the University of Missouri School of Law, Class of 2015. He also graduated cum laude from the University of Missouri with degrees in History and Sociology.

Contributors

Gerald (Jerry) Partridge, JD

Attorney Jerry Partridge founded Police Legal Sciences, Inc. (PLS) in 1999. Over the past 22 years he has authored hundreds of courses in the field of public safety. For nearly two decades as a county attorney, he defended civil lawsuits brought by county jail inmates and former inmates against the State of Iowa/Washington County in cases that ranged from postconviction relief actions to jail suicide attempts. From 2006 – onset of COVID he lectured twice a year at Iowa State correctional facilities. He has lectured at law enforcement training conferences and police academies in 38 states and co-authored three books on police science. Mr. Partridge is admitted to practice law in the State of Iowa.

Kelly Terrill, JD

Attorney Kelly Terrill has been the General Manager of Police Legal Sciences, Inc. (PLS) since 2018. Prior to that, she served as the PLS Director of Legal Training for four years. Ms. Terrill has authored hundreds of courses on criminal law, criminal procedure, state and federal constitutional law, use of force, civil and criminal liability/qualified immunity, PREA, and other legal topics. Ms. Terrill is admitted to practice law in the State of Iowa.

Prior to joining PLS, Ms. Terrill spent several years in private legal practice.

Ms. Terrill interned for the Supreme Court of Delaware. She graduated third in her class from the University of Iowa College of Law, Class of 2006. She is a member of the Order of the Coif, was a student writer on the Iowa Law Review, and graduated with Highest Distinction. She graduated summa cum laude from the University of Missouri with a Bachelor of Science Degree in Business Administration.